

OVERSEAS

In 2015, Neema Crafts Centre in Tanzania became completely financially self-sustainable. We want to take this successful model to other developing countries, where there is an urgent need for training and employment for people with disabilities. Our first project is in Peru.