

OVERSEAS

In 2015, Neema Crafts Centre in Tanzania became completely financially self-sustainable. We want to take this successful model to other developing countries, where there is an urgent need for training and employment for people with disabilities. Our first projects are in Peru and Ecuador.